Locals and Personals

The popularity of Smith's stationery line is still increasing.

Mrs. Onie Putnam arrived home from Keene Saturday. She reports her brother much improved.

N. G. Finley remained at Santa Cruz for a few days after the conference session, to escape the warm spell.

Ralph Cookson was up from San Luis Obispo Sunday for a short visit with his sister, Mrs. W. I. Merrill and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Glover have moved into the Mary Lanphear apartments where they will live until they go south on a visit.

The Ralston Alison family are installed in their new quarters and the Geo. Stray family took possession of their new home Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Hayes has become some "joy rider" since she has learned to manipulate Dad's recently acquired family touring car.

N. A. Blake is moving into the J. C. Ainsley cottage on Harrison avenue until such time as he can secure a carpenter to build him a home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Williams from Doyle, Lassen county have purchased the Henry Oliver property on North 1st street intending to make their home in Campbell.

Mrs. A. H. Osborn went to San Francisco this week to be present while her sister underwent an operation. She will bring home a little nephew to care for during his mother's convalescence.

Millard Berry, Campbell's longest service man is home, having received his discharge at Presidio Sunday. He certainly looks distinguished with his four gold service chevrons and five gold engagements stars on his foreign service bar. He will enjoy a long-deserved rest before getting back to his job.

Gilbert Newcomb arrived home from the east Monday night. He received his discharge at New York in July after ten months service in France with a hospital corps. Since his discharge he has been visiting his brothers in New Jersey and Minnesota. He said that the weather at Minneapolis was beginning to get quite crimping before he left there.

The first meeting of the Home and School club will occur next Tuesday and is called for three o'clock and a very cordial invitation is extended. The officers and department chairmen met Friday and talked over plans and prospects for the year and seemingly there will be a season of "good things" if the mothers will come and help. As announced, Mrs. F. J. Keller will speak Tuesday.

Mrs. L. B. Sprecher and Miss Marjorie Sprecher have returned but were compelled to secure rooms in San Jose because of the crowded conditions existing in this town at present. Miss Sprecher will have charge of the domestic science department at the CUHS this year and her many friends are glad to welcome her to our midst again. All are sorry they can't get accommodations here.

Able Lecture On New Theme

Those who were privileged to hear Miss Gertrude Rowell Monday enjoyed an intellectual treat and a most comprehensive survey of the question of Americanization. A very few of the many lines of thought that she so ably presented are here but briefly touched upon.

"Too many are ready to consider this subject as referring only to our foreign population, but there is just as great a problem with many of the native born, to instill American ideals, those for which this country was established.

The fundamental principle is learning to mind. Obey the laws, and if they are wrong, change them, but keep in mind the two standards, "Am I my brother's keeper?" and, "Love thy neighbor as thyself", and strikes and other disastrous conditions will be changed.

The people must be educated to these standards and ideals so that they will want to do the things that make for democracy.

The Americanization question, being a problem that has been forcibly brot to the attention of the people by war conditions, is so new that actual means and methods for its accomplishment are still in their infancy. However, some progress has been made, one means being thru the visiting nurse or friend.

The real solution must come through the public schools, and should originate from Washington. Some steps are being taken along these lines, but, as yet, the most hopeful feature of the situation is that the thinking, responsible men and women are deeply in earnest over this vital question of the preservation of American democracy."

Association Wins Decision on Contract

Altho the members of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association are obtaining the maximum price for their dried prunes by reason of their membership in the organization, there is occasionally a member, who, for some trivial reason or hope to benefit himself by a fractional part of a cent per pound due to some transient local trade condition, attempts to evade the terms of his contract with his fellow growers and the Association.

Instances of this kind are rare but a typical case has just been judicially decided upon in Napa county. The case is, California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc. vs. Guy W. Young. The proceeding was before the Superior court of Napa county, Judge Sewell of San Francisco temporarily sitting in place of Judge Gesford, on the petition of the Association for an injunction to restrain the defendant Young from selling or disposing of his fruit to any person or in any other manner than to the petitioner under the terms of his contract.

Judge Sewell rendered his decision in favor of the plaintiff association and ordered the issuance of the restraining order asked for in the complainant's petition. This decision upholds absolutely the legal status of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' contracts with the grower members.

Memorial Campaign On

In the national campaign to perpetuate the memory of Theodore Roosevelt as a true American citizen and to keep alive his citizenship ideals, Senator Frank H. Benson of San Jose has been named as chairman for Santa Clara county.

The campaign, which is non-partisan, will be conducted thru the week, beginning October 20, and will end on Roosevelt's birthday, October 27.

A memorial fund of $5,000,000 will be collected thruout the nation by individual subscriptions for the establishment of a monumental memorial at Washington and the creation of a national memorial park at Oyster Bay, with the possible acquisition of the Roosevelt home on Sagamore Hill. The apportionment for Santa Clara county for this fund is $8,500.

Senator Benson will name the members of the county committees, choosing prominent citizens of the county without regard to past political affiliations.

Aside from the collection of the memorial fund is an Americanization movement for the betterment of American citizenship based on the inspiration which Roosevelt's life and work furnished. The educational work to save for future American generations the Roosevelt spirit of citizenship and unselfish love of country will be conducted in the public schools and in public meetings thruout the state during the next few weeks.

Back to the Grind

Campbell's delegation to Stanford U stepped off Wednesday morning ready to do or die for the big "S," some incidentally to gain a bit of knowledge.

Our bunch consists of Miss Joyce Robson, Frank Mendel, Irwin Righter, Jame Fablinger, Gordon Smith, Archie Steindorf, Joseph Gomes, Courtland Watson, Ellard LaMontagne, George Stray, and James Knappen. Gilmore Duncan was unable to get in at this time owing to the crowded condition of the school but will enter at Christmas time. Will Lloyd is attending College of Pacific.

Found: A leather gauntlet glove. To be had for payment for this notice and proving property.

The Pandita Circle will meet Wednesday afternoon, October 3th, with Mrs. B. O. Curry in Parr avenue. As the beginning number of the travelogue section, "A trip thru New Orleans" will be given by Mrs. M. E. Purmort.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitman are at home again after a most enjoyable vacation spent in Oregon. While there they visited one of the most beautiful beaches on this coast. Mr. Whitman tells an interesting story of how he discovered the famous "myrtle workers." The father and several sons are constantly busy turning out all sorts of articles made of that beautiful myrtle wood of Oregon, for which Mr. Whitman has taken the agency.

Mrs. Stewart's Liquid Bluing

We said: "Can you sell us a bottled bluing that's really blue; that won't settle to the bottom, or streak the clothes, or otherwise bring down on our innocent heads the wrath of every customer who ---"

"Mrs. Stewart's is what you want." The drummer was already writing the order in his book.

Just how good is this fluid? Well, the first thing we did with it was to fill a Waterman pen. We're keeping books and writing checks with Mrs. Stewart's Bluing! In mentioning this, however, it is not our aim to discourage the use of ordinary ink; still it would give a piquant touch to one's correspondence if one should add something like this: "P. S.- This letter was written with Mrs. Stewart's Liquid Bluing."

Who is Mrs. Stewart? We have never met her; but from the dear lady's face, as pictured on each bottle, we know her to be honest, which honesty is shown in the bottle itself, for it seems but half the ordinary size and yet contains the standard 10 ounces. No camouflage here!

Still, with all this, we haven't told you how good this bluing is for white clothes. You will find it perfectly satisfactory -- than these two words, suitably emphasized, there are none in English stronger.

The price of Mrs. Stewart's Liquid Bluing, with all its excellent attributes, is but 15c.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

BOY SCOUTS AND BOMBS

A circular printed in red and threatening him with "extermination" for his part in the boy scout membership drive was received by Gavin McNab, a prominent attorney of San Francisco.

Others were said to have been received by Associate Justice W. W. Morrow of the United States circuit court, and Frank Sumers, an attorney, who also were identified with the campaign.

The circular accused McNab of recruiting the boys as future soldiers "to protect the flag-flaunting financiers."

One of the most effective ways to fight bolshevism and anarchism in this country is the suggestion: "Boost the boy scout movement." Everybody knows the wholesome Americanism taught the boys of this organization, along with a general system of physical, mental and moral development. One seldom hears of a boy scout going wrong and getting into trouble with the law. It may also be said no one ever hears of a scout who is not a patriot.

Boys who belong to the scouts do not grow up to flaunt red flags and plant bombs. And if they have any influence at home, their fathers and big brothers imbibe something of their spirit of loyalty and understanding. Clearly enough, if all American boys were scouts, there would be mighty few adult reds to make trouble.

START OF SCOUT'S EDUCATION

Scouting is an educational proposition. Its intent is both to help the scout do the thing he likes to do and to do it better and to lead him out into fields of thought and action that its many divisions offer.

Every applicant for membership must pass the following requirements before he can attain the rank of a tenderfoot scout:

1. Know the scout law, sign, salute and significance of the badge.
2. Know the composition and history of the national flag and the customary forms of respect to it.
3. Tie the following knots: Square or reef, sheet-bend, bowline, fisherman's, sheepshank, halter, clove hitch, timber hitch, or two half-hitches.

SCOUTS IN THE EPIDEMIC.

One scout in Morristown, N. J., served as an interne at a local hospital for two weeks. He did all the work which is usually performed by a grown man. Another spent the better part of a week at a children's home where the majority of sixty inmates were suffering from influenza. Water had to be carried up four flights of stairs, meals prepared and served and many other duties performed.

Still another volunteered for work with the Red Cross and drove a supply truck three times a week between Hoboken and a soldiers' convalescent hospital at Mendham.

Four other scouts were on duty at a diet kitchen established during the epidemic in the high school building.

BOY SCOUT FARM WORKERS.

Over the field and down the road
The day's toll done;
A song upon the lips of us
To speed the setting sun;
And peace within our laughing hearts
And pride to know that we Still carry on like true scouts—
(We did our share in wartime,
Our share and more in wartime),
In time of Victory.

Liberty bond and Victory bond,
We did not fail;
Aid love of country in our hearts
Shall never die nor pale.
And never call but that we heed
For what the gain if we Should mar the record that we hold—
(We did our share in wartime,
Our share and more in wartime),
And fall the Victory?
—Edmund Leamy in Boys' Life.

CHINESE BOY SCOUTS ACTIVE

The wave of progressivism that has swept over south China has given emphasis impetus to the boy scout movement, which has taken root in other parts of the orient.

Quite recently Pang Mue Chang, a well-to-do merchant, formerly of Honolulu, set aside a large part of his country residence near Canton, as a training school for scoutmasters, who are needed badly in view of the enthusiastic approval the movement has been given there.

Strathmore.—The Strathmore school trustees have voted to call a special election in October, the date to be set to vote $85,000 of high school bonds.

Modesto.—Dr. C. W. Evans has sold his hospital here for $40,000 to Dr. F. R. McPheters of Clifton, Ariz. The latter is recently back from France with the A. E. F. Evans is planning to retire and spend some time in Europe.

MAN 36 YEARS OLD MARRIES GIRL OF 13

Minister Performs Ceremony Which Unites Middle Age to Childhood

Malone (N. Y.).—This little town, already distinguished as having given to the United States a vice-president, has added to its laurels by producing the youngest bride thus far recorded in this state. Miss Lillie May Lattimore was just 13, according to the record, when she gave her heart and hand, with the consent of her parents, to R. G. Argelopoulos, aged 36.

The ceremony, according to the Evening Telegram of this village, was performed in the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. T. Wilson Carling, a Methodist minister of North Bangor, a neighboring village. About fifty relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The bridegroom's best man and the bridesmaid were each 15 years old. They left on an auto trip to the city of Ogdensburg, sixty miles away, for their wedding journey.

The bridegroom is a Greek, who, it is said, has studied theology, but seems to have confined his efforts to the street preaching of the Salvation Army. He has been in America several years, coming to Malone about two years ago. He is an accomplished musician and is leader of the Salvation Army band of six pieces. His bride also has musical talent, and Argelopoulos has taught her to play the cornet and her sister to play the slide trombone.

HYPNOTIST RECOVERS $42,000 MAIL LOOT

Farmer Leads Inspector to Spot on Farm Where Money Is Buried

Chicago.—Hypnotism was the avenue through which $42,500 of the $234,000 stolen from the United States mails at Whiting, Ind., was discovered buried on the farm of Onnery (John) Wejda, father of the man who engineered the theft, near Suamico, Wis.

The aged Polish farmer was brought under the mental influence of General James E. Stuart, postoffice inspector, he says, and while in that condition led the officer to the spot where the money was buried in an old milk can wrapped in rags.

"I hypnotized him after talking to him for a short time," said General Stuart. "He was just like a baby in my hands then. He demurred at first to going to the hiding place, but finally agreed that we two should go together and leave the others behind. We went out and in a short time I had the money."

Acting Captain Willard Malone showed $15,600 more of the Standard Oil Company's stolen $234,000 pay roll already recovered by the police. The sum brings the total retrieved in Chicago by police and federal authorities up to $139,000.

APPEAL WIRED BY SAN FRANCISCO TO SENATOR JOHNSON

San Francisco.—Thirty-eight well known men of San Francisco and vicinity September 24 sent a joint telegram to United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson protesting against his attitude on the peace treaty.

"We appeal to you to withdraw your opposition," the telegram said. "We are confident that in this we speak for the overwhelming majority of the people of California and that your present position does not represent them truly."

The telegram was signed by Chief Justice F. M. Angellotti of the Supreme Court, Justices Warren Olney Jr., Curtis D. Wilbur and Lucien Shaw, Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, President Ray Lyman Wilbur of Stanford University, Judges Maurice T. Dooling and William C. Van Fleet of the United States District Court, Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Edwin O. Edgerton, chairman of the State Railroad Commission; Ralph P. Merritt, former Federal Food Administrator in California; Rabbi Jacob Nieto and others.

Fresno.—Ben Johnson, deputy District Attorney, was approached by a Westside rancher with a demand that the county pay said rancher for the loss of his crops, eaten by a herd of wild antelope. The rancher claims that he could not kill the antelope, because the game law prohibited. Since the statute denied him the right to rid himself of the pest to his crop he claims that the county should be responsible for the loss. It is an unusual case. The deputy District Attorney is looking into the novel demand to see if there can be found any ground for such a claim.

Fresno.—King Albert and his cousin are to be given a royal reception at Fresno, when they come to California in October. The itinerary is in the hands of Senator Phelan. Mayor W. F. Toomey has extended the invitation to the royal guests on behalf of Fresno. Tentative plans are being made for their entertainment.

TERSELY TOLD

Stockton.—The Pythian Sisters held their eighth district convention in Stockton Friday afternoon and evening, September 26. Newman, Tracy, Lodi and Stockton temples were represented at the sessions which opened at 2 and 8 p. m. respectively. Grand Chief Anna Barrett of Sacramento presided at the meetings.

Visalia.—Despite the fact that in many instances the highest salaries are being offered, several rural schools of Tulare county are still without instructors. J. E. Buckman, the County Superintendent, believes that with the work now being done these schools will be supplied in due course. Salaries being paid in other lines of work, much above the level of school teachers, accounts for the shortage, Buckman says.

Modesto.—Robert Ojeda, self-confessed auto thief, has been sentenced to San Quentin prison on two charges. The prisoner was recently brought back from Dunsmuir to face charges of stealing two automobiles from Modestans. He pleaded guilty to both counts. He has already served two terms in prison for felonies, having been convicted in Santa Clara and Contra Costa counties.

Stockton.—Journeying from the chalk cliffs of old England to the Pacific Coast, Miss Grace Buxton, formerly of Manchester, reached Sacramento Tuesday night, September 23, to join her fiancé, Louis Giottonini of Stockton. He met her in the capital city and they were quietly married. This culminates a romance which started while Giottonini was stationed in England with the Handley-Page aeroplane bombing squadron.

Alameda.—Mrs. Mary F. McGurn, one of the best known clubwomen in California, died September 23 at the family home, 2017 Central avenue, after a short illness, aged 84. During the Spanish-American war Mrs. McGurn was state treasurer of the American Red Cross Society, and associated in the management of the Children's Hospital. In 1907 she was president of the Adelpian Club of Alameda.

Modesto.—Robert B. Marshall, chief geographer of the U. S. Geological Survey, who is now finishing up a topographical map of California for the government, which has taken him 30 years to complete, is said to have made up his mind to drop out of the service next year and settle on a ranch which he has bought near here. He has been in the government service for 30 years or more. He is now on his ranch near Modesto.

San Francisco.—Stanford Starke, son of a pioneer Sonoma county family, and Miss Winifred Lois Wheeler, were married Wednesday, September 24, at St. John's Episcopal church in Petaluma. The bride is the daughter of William Wheeler, a Petaluma rancher. Starke is the second youngest son of Mrs. Elizabeth Starke of Petaluma, and brother of Mrs. William Kaiser, Mrs. Herbert Minor and Attorney Ralph Starke of San Francisco. He recently was discharged from the army.

San Francisco.—Miss Violet Merriam Atherton became the bride of George Stephen Harris at the First Presbyterian church on Van Ness avenue September 24. Both are from Honolulu, although England was Harris' home until eighteen months ago, when he went to Honolulu to engage in the sugar business. The young couple will remain in San Francisco until the middle of October, when they will return to the islands to make their permanent home. Mrs. Harris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Atherton of Honolulu and her husband is the son of Henry Robert Harris of London, England.

Stockton.—The old Trahern home, on El Dorado street, is being prepared for the rollers, so that it can be moved away and supplanted by a large garage. This adds another to the long list of pioneer homes along El Dorado street which have been taken down to make way for the encroachments of the fast-growing business and automobile district. The old Glick home has just been torn down to be replaced by a service station. Other houses which have been replaced by garage property in recent years include the Louis Frankenheimer, Murphy, McKenzie, Milco, Chalmers, Kelsey, Levinsky and Wallace places.

Tulare.—Gangs of workmen started Tuesday morning, September 23, on equipment for the Tulare county fair, which will open here October 8. Including the permanent buildings, which will be used throughout the coming year for sales and exhibits, the space placed at the disposal of exhibitors will be slightly more than five acres. Reports from the office of the secretary are to the effect that all of the space will be allotted some time before the opening date. Especial interest is being shown in the poultry and swine sections, and in these classes the exhibits are expected to rank with the best of anything shown this year in Central California.

J. DENNIS ARNOLD, FOUNDER OF S. F. POLYCLINIC, DEAD

San Francisco.—Dr. J. Dennis Arnold, widely known San Francisco physician, died at the Lane hospital September 25 after a brief illness. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Dr. Arnold was born in Baltimore in 1855 and was graduated from Georgetown college at the age of 16, and three years later completed his course in medicine at the Physicians and Surgeons' college. He was the youngest graduate of the college up to that time. He then went to Europe, where he continued his studies for several years. On his return to Baltimore in 1884 he married and came to San Francisco the same year.

Dr. Arnold was the founder of the San Francisco Polyclinic and devoted much of his time to its welfare. He was vice-president of the Bohemian Club for a number of years and resigned that office when he went to Alaska, where he had large mining interests. Besides his wife, Mrs. Valerie Arnold, he is survived by two sons and two daughters. They are Dr. Clement Arnold, John Arnold, Miss Eleanor Arnold and Miss Valerie Arnold. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. M. H. Hecht, and a niece, Mrs. Mark L. Gerstle.

TWO-YEAR ENLISTMENTS IN U. S. MARINE SERVICE

The United States Marine Corps has just issued an order authorizing all marine recruiting stations to enlist men for a short period of two years instead of four.

This new order is hailed by all the officers and men in the United States Marine Corps as being the greatest boost to that famous unit of Uncle Sam's fighters and it is expected that but a short time will be required to fill the organization to its full strength.

Hundreds of young Americans who craved for adventure, travel and education were barred from realizing their ambitious desires by the prohibitive long period of four years. That obstacle has been removed.

Students of ancient and modern history who read about the wonders of Egypt, Carthage, Rome, Greece and other centers of civilization and learning, have a chance, within a short period of two years, to see the wonders, study of which was so fascinating. This chance is open to all, rich and poor alike, because one needs no money for traveling expenses. Beside free travel, a man in the United States Marine Corps gets from $30 to $125 a month, including clothes and subsistence.

As a general rule, a young man enlisting in the United States Marine Corps can pick out his own place where he wishes to serve. It is very seldom and only in extreme emergencies that a man is sent to a station that he does not like. Because the United States marines serve in all parts of the world, there is enough variety of climate and scenery to satisfy any ordinary man. Marine recruiting station, 320 Market street.

CEMETERY TRIP HIS IDEA OF "GOOD TIME"

Davenport, Iowa.—The meanest man in the world lives here, according to the testimony of Mrs. William Lange, in a divorce action. When she insisted that he take her out in an automobile for a good time, he drove her to the cemetery, where she might view the thousands of graves and select a site for her own last resting place.

Fresno.—The Growers' National Bank of Fresno, with John Bidegary as president, will open its doors early next month with a paid in capital of $220,000. The board of directors are: A. J. Arnauld, stock grower, rancher and vineyardist, Mendota; J. Bidegary, stock grower, rancher and merchant, Fresno; Juan Camino, capitalist, Fresno; Matias Erro, stock grower, dairies and rancher, Fresno; J. M. Eulless, insurance, Fresno; E. J. Goodrich, rancher, Fresno; J. M. Lugea, stock raiser, Fresno; H. A. Momson, stock rancher, Fresno; Joseph Mouren, stock rancher, Huron; Fred Nelson, banker, rancher, Fresno; Wm. W. Parlier, banker, rancher, Fresno; Jos. F. Pimentel, vineyardist, Fresno; Lucius Powers, vineyardist, rancher, Fresno; Jos. Silveira, vineyardist, rancher, Herndon; S. B. Williams, rancher, Helm.

Stockton.—Mrs. Agatha Morateur, aged 93, said to be the first white woman to arrive in Stockton, is dead at her home in Grass Valley. Of French extraction, the young woman, as Agatha Boulanger, came to San Francisco in 1849. She got around the edict that no women would be allowed on shipboard by embarking in men's clothing. Upon her arrival in San Francisco she found lodging scarce and pitched a tent on Market street. On her way to the mining camps she came to Stockton and was said to be the first white woman to arrive here. In 1856 the young woman was married to Morateur and for 65 years had lived at Boston Ravine, near Grass Valley.

Turlock.—The big sweet potato plant here will be opened Monday with formalities. About fifteen men are employed now assorting potatoes preparatory to the opening. Being a new industry here the employees are instructed in the details of the work ahead. There will be 100 employees when the industry gets under way. Canning and making up the finished products will be continued to January 1.

U. S. MARINES LAND NEAR CITY OF FIUME

London.—An attempt by Jugo-Slav forces to land on the Dalmatian coast is reported in official dispatches reaching here regarding the Adriatic controversy in which Fiume is the storm center. The landing was frustrated by the Italian naval and military authorities.

Rome.—American marines have been landed at Buccari, a small town on an arm of the Gulf of Quarnero, about ten miles southeast of Fiume, says a dispatch to the Messerero. One American ship is in Fiume harbor, according to advices.

Fiume.—Gabriele d'Annunzio declared in an interview here that he was making ready an appeal to the President of the United States, the King of England and the French people to support him in his occupation of Fiume for Italy, which he intended to maintain to his dying day, having determined never to leave the city.

Paris.—Troops under Gabriele d'Annunzio, the insurgent Italian commander at Fiume, have begun extending their zone of occupation into Jugo-Slav territory, according to the Jugo-Slav delegation in Paris. They penetrated seven miles into Jugo-Slavia on Saturday, occupying the heights at Piliak, dominating the surrounding country.

Milan.—The Popolo d'Italia, the socialist organ which was favorable to the war, says that D'Annunzio now has under his command 20,000 men, but no money. It has opened a national subscription to help Fiume.

MAN CONFESSES TO GREENWOOD BOMBING

Watsonville.—George Edwards, a cartoonist, held here as a suspect of the Greenwood dynamiting outrage perpetrated of several months ago in Oakland, which cost Mrs. Greenwood her life, confessed that he planted the bomb. He said:

"I placed the nitro-glycerine bomb in the Greenwood home in Oakland on the night of Tuesday, March 13. I did it to create excitement, not to hurt anybody."

Edwards is said to have made the above confession to the Watsonville police.

Edwards described in detail the making of the bomb and how he placed it in the home of George D. Greenwood, 1899 Jackson street, Oakland, vice president of the Savings Union Bank and Trust Company. The bomb exploded just as Mrs. Greenwood, prominent east bay society leader, was walking past it in her back yard.

Along with his confession Edwards gave a complete account of his movements for the past several years. He said he formerly lived at 112 Jackson street, Oakland, and had rooms in the Pantages Theater building.

He said his family now live at 116 South Hope street, Los Angeles.

PERSHING'S STAFF MULCTED BY SLICK ITALIAN GUIDES

Rome.—"Itching palms" were extended to the enlisted personnel attached to General Pershing's staff during the American commander-in-chief's visit to Rome. Cab drivers, professional guides, professional beggars, novelty vendors and guidebook sellers preyed upon the American doughboys with avidity. One soldier paid $5 to be driven from the station to St. Peter's—a trip ordinarily costing 40 cents, or, by trolley, 4 cents.

Professional guides reaped a harvest at the Coliseum and at St. Peter's, where they played the part of "confidence" men by offering to take the soldiers to parts of these monuments not ordinarily open to the public. A guide at the Coliseum exacted $4 for taking three privates and a sergeant through the upper tiers, while another guide at St. Peter's demanded $7 for taking two boys through the Vatican museum, both of which are free to the public.

A cab driver agreed to take three privates over the ancient Appian way for $6. He took them on a trip of the city of Rome for about an hour, told them they had seen all, and demanded his fare, which they paid.

ARMY AND MARINE CORPS CASUALTIES IN WAR TOTALED

Washington.—Total casualties of the American army in the European war have just been tabulated up to September 1, 1919. The sum total is 322,182 casualties in the army and marine corps in the United States and Europe, including the Archangel and Vladivostok expeditions in Russia. Total battle deaths were 50,327. The total number killed in action constituted 11 per cent of all casualties, while 5 per cent of the casualties died of wounds and 18 per cent died of disease. All missing have been accounted for.

ADAPTED TO SHOPPER'S NEED

Strong Bag That Will Hold a Variety of Purchases, to Be Constructed of Remnants.

Nowadays it is absolutely necessary to take a strong and roomy bag when doing the daily shopping, and our sketch shows a very handy type of bag for this purpose.

It can be carried out with a remnant of thin stair carpet or any other strong material, and can be made in any size to suit different requirements. The diagram on the right of the illustration roughly gives the shape of the piece of material that will be required; it is folded at the point marked by the dotted line, and sewn together at the sides. The opening of the bag is bound with braid, and just below this a number of eyelets are let in, and through these eyelets a piece of strong blind-cord is threaded, by which the opening may be drawn together, and also by which the bag may be carried.

Sewn on in front of the bag and bound at the edge with tape is a small linen pocket, into which bills may be slipped.

STRAIGHT LINES HOLD SWAY

Good Thing to Remember Now That It Is About Time to Plan for Fall Things.

Interest in summer suits is naturally waning somewhat at the present time, with fall so near at hand, and the woman who is planning a fall suit must bear in mind the fact that regardless of dress silhouette, straight lines hold sway in suits. No matter what material is used or what trimming embellishes it, the smart suit will have a straight, semi-fitted coat, thirty to forty-five inches in length, with narrow shoulders and long, tight sleeves. Suit skirts are shorter than those shown with spring models, and while by no means full they are a trifle wider. Soft velours are very popular and a great deal of fur trimming will be used. This fur trimming is usually only in the form of generous sized collars and revers and sometimes cuffs. Trimmed skirts or the elaborate fur peplums used on suit coats last season are not in evidence so far. Embroidery and fanciful braidings appear on many smart suits.

For first fall wear strictly tailored models of cheviot and smart wool mixtures are being brought out.

SASH KEEPS ITS POPULARITY

Far From Passing, It Bids Fair to Become Even More Important Article of Dress.

We keep hearing the rumor that the vest is passe—certainly it is passing, if we judge by the signs of the times, and unless it has a revival will not be here at all by fall. The sash, however, has taken on a new lease of life and is to play an even more important part in our costume than ever before. As to fringe, it is to be more extensively used than ever—in every depth and wherever possible. The fringe banding is often seen trimming satin capes, coats of camels' hair and dresses of taffetas and satin. This banding is made by stitching the fringe on a strip of satin at top and bottom, so that it has the appearance of insertion when used as trimming. Now and then one finds a color different from the dress or cloak showing through the threads, but this is not nearly so often used as the plainer colored banding in blue or black.

Children's Fall Styles.

Mothers are glad to see gumpes coming into fashion again for the little folks. They give a dark dress a "dressed-up" appearance, and are a great saving in the laundry. They are decidedly fashionable this summer and autumn, being made simply and trimmed with either a bit of Val lace or a frill of plaiting of the sheer white material from which they are made. One mother has made a half dozen of these useful gumpes for her small "tomboy" daughter who is in the second grade at school, deciding that it is easier to wash several gumpes than several whole dresses, since it is the sleeves and collar that are soiled first.

Smock and Hatband to Match. If you wish to make an otherwise miscellaneous costume harmonious, trim your smock in blanket stitch in lavender and use the same decoration for your hat, adding to both an appliqued design of leaves made of lavender or several smaller motifs will suit this scheme.

CALOMEL TODAY, SICK TOMORROW

Dose of nasty calomel makes you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with your bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Adv.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OFF WITH FINGERS

You corn-postered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezeone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted off, root and all, without pain. A small bottle of freezeone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin. If your druggist hasn't any freezeone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.—Adv.

Ingenious Automobile Thief.

An automobile owner at Halfway, leaving his car, hitched it to a tree by winding a chain around one of the wheels of the machine and fastening the end of the chain around a tree. An automobile thief jacked up the car, loosened the wheel which was chained to the tree, took it off, and then removing the extra wheel from the rear of the car put it on in the place of the wheel which had been dropped off and drove away, leaving the single wheel chained to the tree.

Big Game Hunters Protest.

A proposal that Canada increase its meat supply by using airplanes to drive the great herds of caribou from the barrens of the northern provinces into corrals on the shore of Hudson bay for slaughter has called forth loud protests from the big game hunters of Africa. They foresee an extension of the practice to the wholesale slaughter of elephants, lions, zebras, giraffes, and various kinds of deer which abound in the no-longer dark continent—Oregonian.

COAST BANKS ORDER 100,000 HAND BOMBS

Grenades Intended for Our Doughboys Given Away Free

San Francisco—Banks and Trust Companies of the seven states in the Twelfth Federal Reserve District have ordered nearly 100,000 hand grenades which they will give free to purchasers of War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates. The grenades are expected to arrive at the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco from Washington within the next thirty days, but owing to probable freight delays, no exact date of arrival can be given.

Those hand grenades which the War Department had on hand when the armistice was signed, all loaded with TNT to bomb the Germans out of their machine gun nests and dugouts, have been turned into savings banks by simply taking out the TNT and cutting a coin slot in the side. Save for those alterations they are regular hand grenades known as the Mills Bomb No. 11. As souvenirs of the Great War they have been sought after avidly in the East, where one enterprising firm, which managed somehow to get a few of them, put them on the market at a dollar each. They sold like hot cakes.

Persons up to twelve years of age can get a grenade by purchasing one War Savings Stamp; 12 to 18 years, two stamps; over 18, one $100 or one $1000 Treasury Savings Certificate, all of which mature in five years and bring four per cent interest compounded quarterly.

Ask any bank about them and get your name in today. The supply is limited. These are the only hand grenades in this country. They were ready for shipment to our doughboys when the war ended and were turned over to the Treasury Department by the War Department to stimulate thrift and saving through the purchase of Thrift and War Stamps regularly.

TEXAS TAKES LEAD IN WAR ON PROFITEERS

Young People's Economic League Boycotts Merchants Who Overcharge

Dallas, Texas—In its fight against the high cost of living, the Young People's Economic League of this city is urging everybody to refuse to buy high priced clothing and shoes, to purchase groceries and meats only where they are being sold at a reasonable price and to put what has been saved thereby into War Savings Stamps and eventually into Registered Treasury Savings Certificates.

The Young People's Economic League, composed of both men and women, is working hand in hand with the Housewives' Chamber of Commerce, which was a prime mover in establishing a municipal market place, where farmers bring their produce and sell directly to consumers. This municipal market proved a success from its inception.

"By buying carefully," said one of the committee chairmen of the Young People's Economic League, "considerable money can be saved, even with prices as high as they are now. We are urging everybody to take what they have actually saved and invest it in War Savings Stamps. They will thus be putting dollars whose purchasing power is low at work earning interest until the time when they are worth more."

"Money invested in War Savings Stamps is always earning more money for the investor and can always be secured, with accrued interest, on ten days' written notice. In these days of high prices, it behooves all of us to save what we can. The war may be over but the profiteer is still waging a merry little war of his own, and savings form one of the best weapons with which to whip him."

HE'S GOT MONEY

"He's got money." Admit that when you hear that said of a man you instinctively look him over—look him over pretty respectfully as a rule. Whether you want to admit it or not, you have a bit of admiration for him. Why?

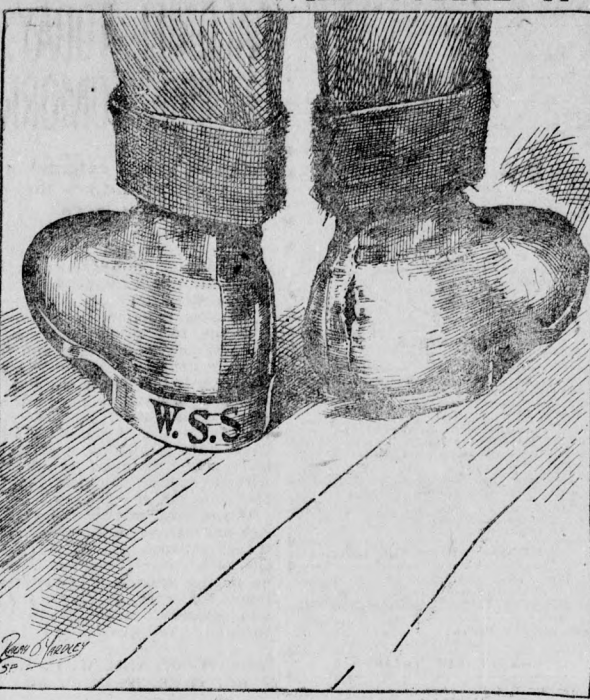

Because he is a man above the general run of human beings. He is a man who is independent—a man who looks the other fellow in the eye and tells him to "go to hell." He can't be bullied. He knows his rights and is in a position to demand them. His money gives him that power.

Independence is the open doorway to happiness. Only the possession of money or of things worth money can give independence. There is only one legitimate way to get money. Earn it and save it. All the capital in the world today was first earned and then saved.

You—everyman and everywoman—can be independent. Each week or month take as much out of your wage or salary envelope and invest in Thrift and War Savings Stamps. Live on what is left. Meanwhile the money put into the government securities goes to work earning 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly.

Make them say "He's got money" when you go by.

UNCLE SAM WILL COBBLE IT

YOU—THE BUSINESS MEN OF CAMPBELL, what is your attitude toward your home paper and its publisher? Do you consider him as a philanthropist, a man with an independent income who is working for the love of it—to keep your town on the map? A town without a newspaper is a dead one, is not even on the map. A business—your business—in a newspaperless town, is a dead business. Your business, in a town supporting a newspaper in which you do not advertise, is not the business it would be with systematic advertising. The newspaper is not a business which should be regarded as an object of charity. The newspaper is just as much your business, as your own business can possibly be; one hinges upon the other, and neither can be in any sense, a success without the other.

Don't feel that you are donating when you give your business to the local paper, advertising and job work. You are investing your money in an enterprise which will bring as immediate and just returns as the business under your direct management. You need the newspaper as badly as it can possibly need you.

WCTU Elects Delegates U of C Host To Boy Farmers

The October meeting was held with Mrs. F. S. Newcomb, Mrs. Kennedy presiding. After the usual opening exercises, hospital work was reported, Mrs. Whitman having received a very appreciative letter from Letterman hospital, expressing thanks for fresh fruit sent. It was decided to send grapes and other fresh fruits procurable and to later forward jams, jellies and canned fruits in time for Thanksgiving dinner.

An extract read from the Mercury led to a discussion which prompted instruction to the secretary who shall write the county WCTU president relative to the issuance of saloon permits in San Jose under present conditions.

The following members were elected delegates to the state convention at Turlock, Oct. 26-30, 1919: Mrs. Clara B. Baldwin, Mrs. Ella Kennedy and Mrs. Alpha Merriman. The secretary was instructed to write county superintendent, Mrs. McMurray, asking her to hold a Mothers Meeting with Campbell WCTU on October 15. Treasurer Mrs. Ida Newcomb gave the annual report. The two remaining rugs will be sold at a 50c reduction each.

The topic of the day, Child Welfare, showed how true to her mission of organized mother-love is the WCTU of today.

The Johnson Avenue Club held its first regular meeting of the year Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lillie F. Shaw, with about thirty present.

The chief object of the meeting was to promote acquaintanceship and establish a neighborly feeling among the residents of the avenue, where there have been several changes during the past season.

Plans and projects for the winter were discussed and initiatory steps taken toward arrangements for a series of social gatherings to foster this neighborly spirit.

Campbell Boy Wedded

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Downing were in Campbell this week visiting Mrs. Birdie Downing. The young people had just returned from their wedding trip to Los Angeles, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Bibb, and took the side trip to Catalina. They were here for a couple of days before Ernest returned to his duties as oil inspector in one of the laboratories of the Standard Oil Co. in Richmond, where he has been employed for some time.

Mrs. Downing was before her marriage, Miss Ruth Elizabeth Renick daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Renick of Richmond. Mrs. B. Downing attended the wedding, which occurred Sept. 19, at Oakland.

Plans of the University of California to be host to 350 boys on October 16, 17, 18, who have been successful in animal and crop growing contests over the state during the past year were announced today by Dean Thomas F. Hunt of the College of Agriculture.

These boys, the winners of the 235 Agricultural Clubs which have been organized under the supervision and direction of the Extension Division of the State College of Agriculture, will be housed in a model tent camp for three days during which they will inspect the successful farming methods employed at the State Farm. Opportunity will be given for recreation and games. Athletic contests will be staged between northern and southern California to include swimming races, tug of war, relay races and tilting matches.

The convention this year will include both the winners for 1918 and 1919. It was that to be impossible, on account of war conditions, to hold the convention last year.

Mrs. R. E. Dunphy will entertain the N. & S. club next Tuesday afternoon.

The Emory Poston property on Los Gatos road has been purchased by Mr. A. Swenson who last year bot and lived for a short time on a ranch on Johnson avenue.

Mrs. H. Fred Evans went to Sanger Monday to spend several weeks with her parents. Fred went to San Francisco yesterday on business and will join her later for a short vacation.

Mrs. F. A. Shotwell has moved to San Jose to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Thompson. She has rented her cottage opposite the HydeCo. cafeteria to a couple of Mr. Hyde's employees.

Mrs. Alice Smith is rejoicing over a letter received this week from her son, Joseph G., who is now at Cordova, Alaska. He has been doing some bear hunting, having bagged 37 real ones, the big one weighing 1270. He opened the first barber shop in Campbell about 20 years ago.

Alice Anderson of Richmond has spent the week here with Mrs. B. Downing. The young girl is quite an artist in solo dancing and will give several numbers this evening at the Autumn Festival which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lace Downing on the Infirmary road for the benefit of St. Martin's parish.

T. F. Sourisseau, who recently sold his ranch on Los Gatos road, has purchased the former E. James property on Santa Clara road at Latimer avenue. Mr. Sourisseau's object in disposing of his house was to buy a larger tract in this same locality if possible. This part of Santa Clara valley is very popular and ranches are at a premium.

FANCY LAND

To my friends in Campbell
thru the courtesy of the Press

Often when I've just been lonely—
An old, old feeling with me;
I open the door of Fancy wide,
With the touch of a magic key.

And before me silhouetted
Is my home town don't you know,
With its scenes as clearly visioned
As I lived them long ago.

I can see the storm-clouds driving
Swiftly onward over-head;
I can hear the rain drops hurdling
Heavy, - dull, like falling lead.

I can see my friends foregather
At the place we oft would meet,
And I hear their laughter ringing
Down the old familiar street.

I can hear the wild birds singing;
See the whirling Autumn leaves
Tossed by wind and seeking shelter
Underneath the friendly eaves.

I can scent the apple blossoms,
And the droning honey bee
Sends me most to drowsy slumber,
So plainly comes the sounds to me.

I can hear remembered voices,
Feel the draw of heart and hand,
Oh, my soul goes forth to meet them—
Shadows all, from Fancy Land.

And somehow I've been thinking
That there may come a day
When I'll be drifting back again
To the old place just to stay.

So I trust you'll not forget me,
I'll write you year by year,
When Christmas tide is almost come
And the leaves are growing rare.
